26 Bible Verses about Guidance

One might wonder, why is this set of bible verses is on my website?

I teach on personal evangelism and various forms of church evangelism, so what does a list of promises on God's guidance contribute to that discussion?

How knowing verses on God's guidance can be useful in Personal Evangelism

If you are engaged in regular conversation with unchurched friends, you will encounter conversations about direction and purpose in life.

You will encounter conversations about life choices, decision making, and be asked your thoughts on "What should I do?"

You'll encounter some non-believers asking "What is God's will in this situation?" Such questions are an indication of their spiritual thirst.

Listen: 6 Obstacles to Personal Evangelism

My foundation seminar is focused on personal evangelism training:

The sharing of your faith in casual conversation with one other person.

This 1-1 interaction scares a lot of people for a variety of reasons.

Some of you have experienced this seminar and have found the freedom to share your faith that you hadn't found before.

You've taken the stress out of evangelism. I can do this. – Participant at Old Greenwich CT seminar.

Here is a free 13 minute sample "6 Obstacles to Effective Evangelism"

7 Habits for Highly Effective Personal Evangelism

“But I am so afraid to start a conversation,” confessed a pastor.

“I have non-Christian friends, and spend time with them, but I’m so afraid of ruining my friendship.”

Does that describe you, even if you are not a pastor?

From the seminars I give around the US and in Latin America, this is a common fear.

So to address this fear, let me throw out my list of 7 Habits for Highly Effective Personal Evangelism.

The Foundation For Personal Evangelism

Several years ago I gave a personal evangelism seminar for the regional expression of the Presbyterian Church.

At the end of it, somebody filled out an evaluation form and comments,

“You didn’t talk about the need for a relationship with Christ.”

Maybe this commenter had an agenda or litmus test I unknowingly had to pass.

Maybe this person didn’t really hear the four hours of the workshop because I didn’t touch on the pet theme this person was listening for.

At first, I took offense because I felt I not been understood.

But then as I pondered this comment further, I discovered that I have two foundational assumptions in my personal evangelism seminar. [\[Read more...\]](#)
